

The Center for Comparative and Global Studies in Education
presents a series of workshops for graduate students

Pathways toward Authoring Oneself in Academia

THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 2015
NOON - 1:00 PM
474 BALDY HALL

Student writers are invited to join our distinguished speakers to learn to succeed in academia.
This workshop focuses on:

- ◆ Smart Online Reference Search Strategies and Key Libraries Resources
 - Presenter: Mr. Chris Hollister, Associate Librarian, University Libraries
 - The effective use of scholarly sources available only through the UB Libraries is a critical component of any graduate student's academic success. Workshop attendees will learn how to navigate the Libraries' wealth of electronic resources, and how to effectively use them to find scholarly materials in support of their research and writing.

- ◆ Successful Academic Writing Strategies and Key Writing Center Resources
 - Presenter: Dr. Arabella Lyon, Director, Center for Excellence in Writing
 - The use of the writing process is necessary to creating new knowledge. Workshop attendees will learn how to begin, revise, and polish papers. We will also examine some conventions of academic genres (forms), methods, and discourse to clarify the communicative nature of writing. Please come with a writing assignment.

For questions and additional information, contact Dr. Namsook Kim at nkim3@buffalo.edu.